Course Description

This course explores the Chicana and Latina experience with emphasis on the cultural and historical development, and the socioeconomic and political status of their contemporary communities.

Introduction: I am Felipe E. Ponce, Sr, the instructor for this course and would like to extend a warm welcome to you all. Thank you for choosing CHLX 10!

I would like you to know that I am here to help you. If you have outside responsibilities or other potential barriers to completing the work for this course, please come talk to me as soon as possible. Don't wait until it's too late to get help.

If you have any disability, either temporary or permanent, which might affect your ability to participate fully in the course, please let me know right away. We can figure out what accommodations will be necessary to provide for equitable participation.

Finally, I want to stress that ALL students are welcome in my class, regardless of national origin, religious affiliation, ethnicity, gender, sexual orientation, age, physical challenge, socioeconomic status, or cultural background. Let us work to make our classroom an environment marked by kindness and mutual respect for one another. It is our differences, even more than our similarities that offer the richest opportunities for learning

Student Learning Outcomes:

Upon successful completion of the course, students will be able to:

- Recognize and analyze the impact of historical and contemporary forms of institutionalized racism, classism, sexism, inequality and practices of social justice in the context of the Chicax and Latinx Communities.
- Examine the intersections of social constructions such as race, class, gender, sexual orientation, nationality and diversity of titles and identities within the Chicax Latinx communities.

Course Textbooks:

All material will be made available on our course Canvas page

Assignments

- Weekly Postings (3-5 points each) = 50%
- Critical Commentaries 20pints = 20%
- Presentation 20 points = 20%
- Final Review 10 points= 10%

100 total points

Grading Scale: 94-100=A, 90-93=A-, 86-89=B+, 83-85=B, 80-82=B-, 76-79=C+, 70-75=C, 0-69=no pass

Daily Postings (40 total points): You will be responsible for 2-3 weekly postings (2-5 points each = 40 total points) that answer questions about the readings/lectures/films. Please make sure to keep up with these postings as they are critical to our collective knowledge. It is easy to fall behind in such an intense course so please be diligent in keeping up with your postings.

Critical Commentary (20 points): You will be submitting TWO critical commentaries, 3-pages minimum each that answer central questions about the topics we will be exploring. These essays must include at least 2 resources from the assigned reading, films, and lectures. These are more than just summaries, and require you to demonstrate thoughtful reflection and critical assessment of the literature as it relates to your experiences.

Presentation (20 points): You will be asked to do a research project on a topic related to the Chicana/o/x or Latina/o/x community. You will record a presentation and turn in a 2-3 page paper on your research. Details to come!

Course Final Review (10 points): At the end of our 6-week session you will be asked to reflect on what you have learned and how you have grown as a scholar via this course. You will also be asked to evaluate the effectiveness of the course material and lectures.
