Course Description:

Introduction to the historical and cultural background of the Korean language. Intensive reading and writing practice of the Korean alphabet, Hangeul. Development of language skills orally and in writing for basic and simple information relating to high-frequency situations in familiar contexts, to further understand grammatical and syntactical structures.

Student Learning Outcomes

- Student Learning Outcome 1: Develop reading the Korean alphabet, Hangeul and demonstrate a working command of essential vocabulary (recognize and reproduce some 180 Korean words and expressions) and language structure necessary to request and provide, orally and in writing, basic/simple information relating to high-frequency situations in familiar contexts, such as greetings, introducing friends/family, locations, making requests, and describing detail.
- Student Learning Outcome 2: Derive meaning from short, simple texts on familiar topics, relying on contextual clues to extract the gist and some detail.
- Student Learning Outcome 3: Compose comprehensible, simple phrases or sentences about familiar topics to reflect a working command of core vocabulary and language structures.
- Student Learning Outcome 4: Demonstrate a cursory grasp of social protocols and contributions of Korean-speaking cultures, by analyzing and comparing them to one's own culture(s).

Expectations and Goals

In order to successfully complete this course, you must be able to do the following by the end of the quarter.

- Recognize and reproduce all Hangeul
- Comprehend basic oral and written messages about everyday life activities
- Produce short sentences, orally and in writing about daily activities
- Speak simple sentences with natural and near-native speed with reasonably accurate pronunciation and speech patterns
- Recognize and use terms and amenities in simple conversation about everyday life activities within the range of learned vocabulary patterns and idioms
- Differentiate and use formal and informal levels of speech
- Compare aspects of Korean culture with those of the U.S.

Attendance:

Regular attendance is essential for the successful completion of this course. If you do miss a class, it is your responsibility to contact me or your classmates, get the assignments for the following day, and come to class prepared. Absence is no excuse for not taking a test/quiz and/or not handing in your homework on time. You are allowed two class absences. Repeated instances of tardiness (30minutes or more) or leaving early may be counted as an absence. If you incur more than 3 absences due to extenuating, verifiable circumstances, please contact me as soon as possible. These situations will be considered on a case-by-case basis but be advised that with so many absences successfully completing this course will be nearly impossible.

Grading Policy

- In class Work/Participation (10%): As the Korean 1 class is a language learning course, you will be expected to fully participate in all activities during class. Each day, many opportunities will be provided for you to practice listening, speaking, writing, and reading skills. You will be graded on appropriate and consistent engaged interaction in Korean with your classmates and your instructor.
- Homework (20%): There are three types of homework in this class.

- 1) Homework is assigned at the end of each class meeting. Mostly you will be asked to complete your workbook exercise along with preparing oral/written quizzes or presentations.
 - 2) Listening practice: As part of the course work, you will spend at least one hour per week listening to the online scripts and completing exercises in the workbook. However, that 1 hour lab work can also be completed by doing listening practice with other helpful website materials or watching Korean TV or movies only if you finish your workbook exercises before one hour passes.
 - 3) Essay: This homework is intended to help students better understand Korean history and culture. It is indicated in advance on the course schedule, so please check it.
- Test/Quiz (20%): For each unit, you take quizzes and tests of written and oral. The content of tests and quizzes will be based on completed homework and each lesson. If you complete the homework, pay attention, and participate fully in class, you will do very well on these tests and quizzes. All the tests and quizzes will be announced in advance.
 - Presentation (10%): Script and Oral Presentation. The oral proficiency assessment will consist of conversation with a partner about a topic we have studied. The entire exam will take approximately 5-10 minutes and will be scheduled later in class and we will engage in many practice activities prior to the assessment.
 - Midterm(20%), Final Exam (20%): The midterm and final exam will be taken in class. The format will be similar to the exams, with listening and reading comprehension, written work, cultural material, grammatical functions, and vocabulary. No make-up will be given for the final exam and no final exams are administered early.
 - Evaluation
 - In class work/participation 10%
 - Homework 20%
